This check covers all excess taxes from 2015 and 2016.

Also, when I bought back the BAC, I over-bought by 770 shares, so that is worth about $18,000, and remains in the TD AmeriTrade brokerage account.

Lastly, according to Steve's calculations, you will owe another $7,070 for 2018 Medicare premiums over what you + mom normally pay. I will send a check for that at yearend -- noted on my calendar.

You're right - I used the price of BAC on 5/31/16 when I did my calculation for the 770 shares, and its gone up appreciably. So $18042 is the amount that is needed to make up the difference for 2015/2016. I really encourage you to pay the $7070 for the increase in 2018 medicare premiums now, so that we can "put this all behind us" (those are Dads words) and dont have to deal with it again. (Another transposition error - the medicare increase will be $7070, not $7707). So, would you send them a check for

$$18042 + $7070 = $25,112$

I think that would really help.

Finally had a chance to review. First of all.....thanks Steve for catching that error that I over-bought the BAC shares.

And that error actually benefits me by $18,095, or 770 shares x $23.50.

So here is my math:

Excess 2016 taxes owed (Federal and RI): $219,044

Plus excess 205 taxes 3,787

Plus make-up for lost dividends 3,100

Minus cash set aside $188,944

Minus excess stocks (MGT + BAC) 18,945

TOTAL OWED BY ROB now: $18,042

Also: Rob owes an additional ^{7,070}~~$7,707~~ in January 2018 to cover Medicare premiums.

If we agree, I will mail Dad a check for $18,042 tomorrow; that way it will have plenty of time to clear before he needs to draw on it.

Thanks,
Rob
